That Made a Difference.

"The defendant admits," said the traffic cop, "that he went around the corner on two wheels." "Fifty dollars fine or thirty days," said the judge. "But does your honor know," interposed the defendant's counsel, "that the defendant was riding a bicycle?" —Buffalo Express.

Love and Happiness.

Your happiness will be found to be very much in proportion to the number of things you love, and the number of things that love you.

An Admission.

"Sometimes I don't get what's in your mind." "What do you mean by that?" inquired Senator Sorghum. "To be quite frank, I don't understand what you are talking about." "My friend, that may often indicate that I have conveyed my mental impressions to you only too clearly."

Roundabout Conclusion.

"It's an extended corridor that has no ultimate termination," mused the absent-minded professor, as he patiently plodded around the revolving door.

IN A RESTAURANT

Patron (who had ordered eggs)—Why this delay?
Waitress—We are waiting for the parcel post, sir.

JUST LIKE HER.

Belle—How in the world did Gertie Headstrong ever come to marry Jack to reform him?

Helen—I can tell you. Gertie tried to reform Jack before she had any idea of marrying him and failed, and you know Gertie.—Judge.

A JINGO.

"Father," said the small boy, "what is a jingo?"

"A jingo, my son, is a man who shoots off his mouth, but never learns to fire a gun."

DISTRIBUTES THEM.

"She seems to take great pains with her piano playing."

"Yes, and gives more than she takes."

CAUSATION.

Law Professor—State briefly two grounds for divorce.

Student—Jitney income, and limousine wife.—Judge.

SPREADING IT.

Country—Just think of our forest preserves!

City—How about our subway jam?

PARADOXICAL.

"Why is Jones so anxious about the pursuit of his health?"

"I suppose he has found it is run down."

THE WRONG LINE.

He—Each hour I spend with you is like a pearl to me.

She—Aw, quit stringing me.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

Christian Circuit Court, Kentucky.

Minnie Reese,
Against
Sam Sims

EQUITY.

By Virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Christian Circuit Court, rendered at the February Term thereof, 1917, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court-house door in Hopkinsville, Ky., to the highest and best bidder, at Public Auction, on Monday, the 7th day of May, 1917, between the hours of 11 o'clock a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m. (being County Court Day,) upon a credit of six (6) months, the following property, to-wit:

"One dwelling house and lot lying just outside the corporation of Gracey, Kentucky, on the right hand side of the road, leading from Gracey to Hopkinsville, and being the dwelling house formerly occupied by the defendant, Sam Sims, and the only dwelling house owned by him in or near the town of Gracey."

"And also one small lot with restaurant situated thereon, across the Railroad from the Illinois Central depot, being the same lot upon which the restaurant building is situated, and owned by the defendant, Sam Sims."

Or sufficient thereof to produce the sums of money ordered to be made, amounting to $333.23. For the purchase price, the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of the sale until paid and having the force and effect of a Replevin Bond.

Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

LUCIAN H. DAVIS,

Master Commissioner.

T. P. COOK, Attorney.

DOING WITHOUT PIGS.

Maybe the pigs will complain, and maybe they will be glad, when they learn that another patent has been granted for a process of manufacturing artificial lard, or a substitute for lard. This consists in subjecting cottonseed oil to a process known as hydrogenization, during which hydrogen gas combines with the oil to a greater or less degree. The result is a fatty substance which contains about 22 per cent of a certain kind of oil or fat known as "stearin." Then there is mixed with this "hydrogenized" cottonseed oil enough oily lard to give the resulting mixture as nearly as possible the same flavor and density as natural lard. This lard substitute is designed to be used for all the purposes for which real, genuine lard is now used.

WHERE WE ARE SHY.

"The Japanese language has seven synonyms for I."

"Some of our public speakers have long felt that our own language is sadly deficient in that respect." —Judge.

IN A CROWDED SHOP.

First Man—Can we stay here all night?

Second Man (helpfully)—We won't take much room. I walk in my sleep.

OPPOSING CHARACTERISTICS.

"How stout Sam is! He is getting as round as a ball."

"That's so, but he's a mighty square fellow."

WILL REMEDY THAT.

"They say his wife has money."

"Well, that isn't his fault. They've only been married a short time." —Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE OBJECTION.

"Why do you object to the telephone as a great modern invention?"

"Because it does not always answer."

Muscle Soreness Relieved.

Unusual work, bending and lifting or strenuous exercise is a strain on the muscles, they become sore and stiff, you are crippled and in pain. Sloan's Liniment brings you quick relief, easy to apply, it penetrates without rubbing and drives out the soreness. A clear liquid, cleaner than musky plasters or ointments, it does not stain the skin or clog the pores. Always have a bottle handy for the pains, aches of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, grippe, bruises, stiffness, backache and all external pain. At your druggists, 25c.—Advertisement.

"FORMAL" HUNT POOR SPORT

Where the Cheetah Is Given a Chance, However, It Is Something of a Different Matter.

The "formal" cheetah hunt, which is sure to constitute a part of the entertainment provided by any one of a couple of dozen of the most prominent native chiefs of northern India for his distinguished guests, is, if anything, tamer and more tiresome than a state tiger hunt, with the latter's elaborate provisions for rounding up the torpid quarry and still more elaborate precautions against anyone but the beaters being mauled. An informal cheetah hunt, however, where things are taken as they come, is rarely a very entertaining experience. On such occasions, as no maharajah's reputation for hospitality is held to hang upon the number of slaughtered bucks laid at the feet of the guest of honor in the official photographs, it is possible to give the quarry something like a sporting chance, the consequence being that the cheetah is seen far nearer the limit of its really phenomenal stalking and sprinting powers than when the game, frightened and confused by a line of beaters, is driven under the supercilious nose of the "hunter." —Wide World Magazine.

World's Largest Spring.

Mammoth spring, at Mammoth Spring, Ark., is the largest spring in the world. This spring covers 13 acres, flows 600,000 gallons of water a minute and is 70 feet deep. It forms Spring river, 350 feet wide. The flow does not fluctuate the year round.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Real Cleverness.

"He's a clever photographer." "Makes pictures of people as they look, I presume." "Cleverer than that. He makes them as they think they look." —Detroit Free Press.

More in Life Than Wealth.

Wealth has made a lot of poor husbands and worse wives. Knowing something about cooking a square meal, and keeping sweet, is far better than counting money with a grouch.

Daily Thought.

Die when I may, I want it said of those who know me best—that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower when I thought a flower would grow. —Abraham Lincoln.

HELP FEED YOURSELF

Make Home Gardens and Back Yards Productive

Make Every Square Yard Of Fertile, Sunny Soil Produce Food For Your Family. If You Can't Raise All Your Own Vegetables, At Least Raise Some.

Make your ground work for you and the Nation. Idle ground is waste; this is no time for waste or idleness.

All idle ground utilized in the production of vegetables means more food for those who have no ground at all.

Raise Some Vegetables For Your Family No Matter How Small A Piece Ground You Have

Somebody Has to Raise Everything You Eat-Do Your Share

Keep Your Soil Working All Season.

1. Keep your garden working all season. Hasten early crops by starting seed in boxes in the house, in hotbeds and cold frames if the weather prevents outdoor planting.
2. Get your ground ready for planting as soon as the soil is dry enough to work.
3. Plant for early crops as soon as the weather permits. Make successive plantings of lettuce, radishes, beans, and other short-season crops.
4. Start new crops between the rows of plants that are soon to be removed.
5. As fast as the ground is cleared of one crop start a new crop.
6. See that your garden toward fall is full of potatoes, beets, turnips, cabbage, and other staple foods that can be stored for the winter.

Your Children, Too, Can Help.

Boys and girls can help to make the soil in your gardens, back yards, and vacant lots produce food for the family. Last year they raised in the gardens and helped to can more than 4,000,000 packages of valuable food.

Save All Surplus Fruits and Vegetable.

If your garden at any time produces more than you can use immediately, do not allow the surplus to spoil. Can surplus beans, peas, corn, tomatoes, beets, spinach, pumpkin, and squash for winter use.

Can or preserve apples, peaches, pears, cherries, quinces, berries, and other cultivated and wild fruits.

Every can of vegetables or fruit and every jar of preserved food means that you have saved food materials that would have otherwise been wasted.

Can or store root crops, cabbage, and other vegetables properly so that they will keep well and supply you with food when the garden ceases to produce.

Learn How To Grow And Can Vegetables.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture or your State agricultural college or county agent will give you explicit directions for raising vegetables, and will tell you simple methods for canning vegetables and fruit at home with ordinary home utensils.
